

The Jury of the open competition for film maker of a documentary to be created as part of the “Neighbours – Witnesses. Objects, people, stories” component of the “Jewish National Heritage” grant would like to announce as follows:

On June 3rd, 2014 the Jury:

1. Anita Christensen – Cultural programming officer, Jewish Museum in Oslo
2. Sidsel Levin – Director of the Jewish Museum in Oslo
3. Vidar Alne Paulsen – Educator officer, Jewish Museum in Oslo
4. Dag Kopperud - Collections manager, Jewish Museum in Oslo
5. Mats Tangestuen - Historian and head of research department, Jewish Museum in Oslo
6. Torill Torp-Holte - Head of exhibition department, curator, Jewish Museum in Oslo
7. Przemysław Jaczewski – Audio-visual specialist, Museum of the History of Polish Jews
8. Piotr Kowalik – Deputy Head of the Education Department, Museum of the History of Polish Jews
9. Joanna Król – Oral history specialist, acting coordinator of the component “Neighbours – Witnesses. Objects, people, stories”, Museum of the History of Polish Jews
10. Marek Łoś – Specialist on evaluation and graphic design, Museum of the History of Polish Jews
11. Albert Stankowski – Head of the Digital Collections Department, Museum of the History of Polish Jews
12. Zygmunt Stępiński – Deputy Director of the Museum of the History of Polish Jews

Chose the winning project, which is “Bente & Alexander” by Andrzej Titkow with 213,5 points.

The Auxiliary Project is “It’s hard to be different” by Piotr Boruszkowski with 171 points.

There were two more projects, which received points as follows:

“Jewish assassination of Tzar” by Piotr Boruszkowski with 117 points.

“Poles, Jews, Norwegians” by Małgorzata Brama and Andrzej Strauchold with 99,5 points.

The decision has been accepted by director of the Jewish Museum in Oslo, Ms Sidsel Levin and by the director of the Museum of the History of Polish Jews, Mr Dariusz Stola.